PHIL 100 Introduction to Western Philosophy

Course Description:

This course is an introduction to problems and methods from the Western philosophical tradition. We will investigate three central questions of fundamental human concern from three areas of philosophy: the Philosophy of Religion, the Philosophy of Mind, and Metaphysics. The course is organized around the following questions.

Credit: 4

If you can't find the subjects or topics you are interested in, or you want detailed course syllabus, you can contact our Advisor for more information.