

ECON 202 Principles of Macroeconomics

Course Description:

This course is the introductory course in macroeconomics. The course introduces and covers in detail traditional macroeconomic topics such as economic growth, the business cycle, unemployment, inflation, and the national income and product accounts, which include Gross Domestic Product (GDP).

Credit: 4

If you can't find the subjects or topics you are interested in, or you want detailed course syllabus, you can contact our Advisor for more information.